Re: Acceptable Use Policy, Language Translators

In light of concerns over the use of cell phone translators in the classroom, Thornton-Donovan School will now require ALL students who need a translator to purchase ONE of the following translators:

- Wizcom Quicktionary 2 Multi-text translator
- Hanvon A10/A10B (discontinued)

The Wizcom series can be purchased on major retail sites, such as Amazon.com, or directly from wizcomtech.com. The Hanvon translators can be found abroad/on eBay.

Students who need assistive technology in accordance with their language needs must adhere to Thornton-Donovan School's Translator Policy or they will have to take their exams without a translator.

Thank you all for your cooperation,
